2019 Men's Representative Team Selections – Box

27 players were selected to continue following the January tryout camp. Training has continued in February and March, and we are now into final training prior to participating two international events in Prague later this month.

Those events will be used for continued evaluation and further selections will be made in early May.

Selections are being conducted in accordance with the Selection Process Outline provided in December, and the Hong Kong Lacrosse Association Selection Policy.

Selection Panel members

- Head Coach: Scott Browning
- Assistant Coaches: Rod Banister, Travis Gillespie, Grant Hamilton
- HKLA CEO: Raymond Fong

With input from independent evaluators.

A chronology of key tryout events and activities follows

Thank you for your support. We are all excited about the final months of preparations and the upcoming World Championships.
