Hong Kong Lacrosse Officials Committee

Official's qualification announcement

Dear Officials,

We're writing to you today on behalf of the HKLA Officials Committee to make the following announcement.

As effective immediately, all Official's qualifications will come with an expiry date till 31st August 2024, and all new accredited officials will have a 2-year expiry date as well.

This change was made to ensure the sustainable development of engaged and high performing officials in Hong Kong.

In order to continue your qualification, you will need to complete the following requirements before the expiry date.

1. Officiate in minimum of 3 full field games of your discipline (field, sixes, box) (games officiated from Sept 1 2022 will all be counted)
 - a. Individuals must send your record (Capture of payment history by HKLA website system) of officiating in these games to our email (officials@hklax.org) at least 1 month prior to the expiry date
2. Renew your HKLA membership annually

If and when your qualification does expire, you may also partake in the following actions within 1 year to revalidate your qualification.

1. Take a revalidation rule test and score 90% or above
2. Be shadowed in one full field game and validated by Level 2 official or above

If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to reach out to your Official-in-chief or Officials Committee.

Best,

HKLOC
